What has been happening this week?

And just like that, we are at the end of the first half of the Spring Term. Despite the gloomy weather, it has flown by and we find ourselves half way through the year.

Thank you to everyone who supported our Book Fair this week. With close to £1200 raised, we will continue to restock our library with up to date non fiction books and fiction requested by the children (not just Dog Man!!!)

It was great to see so many parents and carers attend the Open Classroom event on Tuesday. We are sure you will agree that the children have been working hard.

What is happening after Half Term?

The teachers have been busy planning the next units of work for the classes. Look out for the newsletters from the teachers which will outline the learning happening during the second half of the Spring term.

A heads up for the second week of next term - we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 7th March as Year 5 are out on a trip on the 6th March and we would hate for them to miss out. The day will be full of activities to promote reading for pleasure and we would like the children to come dressed as a character from a book. Here are some simple, cheap ideas and some more information about World Book Day:
