What has been happening this week?

Hello Yellow Day was an excellent opportunity to remind the school community about the importance of looking after our mental health. The school was a beautiful, bright vision in yellow to uplift us all! Classes took part in special activities to raise awareness around mental health, including a fun photo booth to make everyone smile. It's not too late to donate to our fund raiser for the Young Minds Charity here:

The children have loved all the enrichment activities this week. Year 6 experienced life during wartime at the Imperial War Museum. Year 2 had an informative workshop from the History Man about The Great Fire of London, as did Year 5, who were immersed in Ancient Greece. These experiences make learning fun and memorable. Thank you for your support with making payments and helping out on our visits.

What is happening next week?

Our Monday assembly will be about the value of Compassion. We will also be thinking about the Christian festival of Harvest and how it links to the UN Articles and our school values.

Year 6 parents have a meeting about the upcoming Residential visit to Kingswood on Wednesday after school.

The children have their nasal flu vaccines on Thursday, so please ensure all permissions have been completed if you would like your child to have this protection from the winter nasties.

Compassionate - We show kindness and respect
others' feelings,
backgrounds, beliefs and needs.

Celebrating Diversity at Brindishe Schools

Over the past year the Federation Equalities and Diversity Team have been working on updating our Protected Characteristics postcard, to make it more child and family friendly. This week it was shared with the older children and will continue to be used across the schools as part of our learning and in promoting positive relationships.

F@B

Please collect your pre-ordered pizzas from outside the school office this Friday at 3.30pm, and pick up a bargain at the climate change sale while you're at it!

Important information from the office

Year 2 and Year 5: Payments for The History Man are due.

Year 4: Lesnes Abbey trip payments are due.

Absence: Please remember to call, email or leave a message. We need to know where your child is. Thank you!

Panto Competition

Pantomime returns to Catford's Broadway Theatre this Christmas with a spellbinding new production of Sleeping Beauty. To celebrate, Joy Productions, the team behind the show is holding a writing and drawing competition. Children are invited to either write a story (max 200 words) about Sleeping Beauty awakening from her slumber or design a costume for Nanny Nora the Panto Dame.

There will be one winner and two runners up for each competition. All will receive invites to a special ceremony at the theatre to see their work displayed. Entries close on Monday 4 November.

Please contact Helen White, Head of Outreach at Joy Productions, on helenwhiteoutreach@gmail.com for more details.

Young Thinkers Philosophy Club

The Philosophy Foundation sessions offer children a fun and engaging space to explore big ideas through open discussions, stories, and activities. Led by an experienced philosopher, each session encourages creativity, critical thinking, and communication skills—valuable tools for learning and life.

Guided by an experienced philosopher, children are encouraged to explore big ideas through thought-provoking questions and collaborative discussions. These sessions help them develop important skills, such as critical thinking, clear communication, and the ability to form and evaluate their own arguments—valuable tools that will benefit them across all areas of learning and life.

Sessions will run on the second Tuesday of the month at Manor House Library, starting October 8th

3:45pm - 4:45pm - Ages 5 - 7 £8 per child
5:00pm - 6:00pm - Ages 8 - 11 £8 per child

Online Safety Bulletin

If your child has played or seen any online games from the past few years, they've probably noticed that almost every title of this kind has some kind of chat functionality. Whether allowing players to send text messages to one another or letting them use their mics to chat together on voice if your child is on a multiplayer game, chances are they can talk to fellow gamers, one way or another.

Sadly, such a function comes with its fair share of risks - as is to be expected with a feature intended to connect gamers from around the world and it is immensely important for parents and educators to understand these concerns and help young players address them. That's why The National College has put together this free guide and podcasts, breaking down the most prevalent issues associated with in-game chat and letting you know how to keep youngsters as safe as possible if or when they're exposed to this feature.

Rights Respecting - Article of the Week

Article 6 (life, survival and development)

Every child has the right to life. Governments must do all they can to ensure that children survive and develop to their full potential.

What are all the things that you need to survive and to develop?

Good health – physical and mental

Education

Healthy food

Clean water

Somewhere safe to live

People to look after you

A name and an identity so you can be registered for healthcare and education

Protection so you are safe from abuse and neglect

A good standard of living

Time and space to relax and play

Knowledge of your rights

Share the story about Titch with your child at home

Can you think of three things that you can do now that you couldn't do when you were younger?

Perhaps you can create a timeline showing what you could do when you were different ages – remember though, that everybody develops at different speeds.

Harvest Festival

Harvest Festival celebrates the time of year when crops have been gathered from the field and people can reflect and show gratitude for the food that they have.

It dates back a long time in British history, to when people relied on crops for food and farmers would give thanks for a good harvest.

At Brindishe Schools your child will learn about harvest time, and collect food for those in need in your local community. They will have a special assembly too. Look out for Harvest Festival Donation information in your schools individual newsletter.

Brindishe Schools Governing Body

Governing Body meetings are regular and meet every half term. Parents/carers are more than welcome to attend our meetings as 'observers'.
